The global furniture industry is undergoing a significant transformation, shaped by evolving consumer preferences, with projections to reach $902.09 billion by 2030, reflecting a CAGR of 5.45%. Growth is fueled by urbanization, rising disposable income, and the shift toward digital commerce. The next 12–24 months will see eCommerce surpassing 50% of total furniture sales, while Asia-Pacific remains the fastest-growing region. Innovations in augmented reality, sustainable materials, and personalized shopping experiences will define competitive advantage. Companies that embrace digital transformation and sustainability will lead the market.

A clear look at how shifting customer behavior and online demand shaped year-over-year e-commerce growth across the furniture category
